

Official Notice: June 5, 2023

Illinois Federation of Republican Women (www.ifrw.org)

2023 Procedure for Nomination to State Office

Accepting applications now until July 30, 2023

- 1) All correspondence, emails, and phone calls must be directed to the Nominating Committee Chairperson, Sue Hamilton. Materials will be reproduced and sent to Nominating Committee members.
- 2) Applications may be for a specific position or for a leadership position in general. The Committee will choose one nominee for each position: President, 1st, 2nd, 3rd, 4th Vice President, Secretary, and Treasurer (seven positions in total.) The slate will be presented and announced at the IFRW October Convention.
- 3) Applicants are requested to submit a maximum of two typed pages:

One page describing key personal characteristics that have prepared you for a leadership role in IFRW;
One page describing your thoughts on key goals and strategy for IFRW 2024-2025.

This exercise is not a quiz! There are no preconceived right or wrong answers. The Nominating Committee asks that you thoughtfully consider the importance of the IFRW to the success of the Republican Party and your role as a potential leader. Each applicant must be a 2023 member of IFRW in a chartered 2023 club. Nominees for President must have served at least one year on the IFRW Board. Details are in the IFRW Bylaws on www.ifrw.org

Page 1

- List all contact information. List in order your preference for position(s).
- Describe the leadership characteristics that have made you a successful leader.
- Give two examples of how you have used your leadership skills to lead a group to an accomplishment. (Be specific in describing your skills and your role in each case.)
- List three references with phone numbers: one government officeholder, one political organization officeholder, and one President or past President of your club.

Page 2

- What do you see as the key mission of the IFRW?
- Evaluate the work done by the IFRW Board in the last two years to work toward this mission.
- Evaluate the work done toward this mission regarding the position for which you are applying.
- List your three top goals for the IFRW 2024-25. Describe and explain specific strategies and the strategy for reaching these goals.

Interviews will be conducted on August 16 & 17 in Springfield, Illinois.

Please check your calendar and plan to be available on one of those dates.

Email applications to: jshamilton02@gmail.com or mail to:

Sue Hamilton, 104 Jeremy Drive, Carterville, IL 62918